

ADAMS & CO.

On every tide the trade comes rolling in, and here are a few of the special reasons why it comes.

SONNETTE CORSETS. "NADINE" CORSETS.

THE NADINE is the most perfectly shaped corset imported, and is expressly manufactured in Paris for our exclusive trade. It is the experience of French material, workmanship and finish with the long-waisted, exquisite American shape from which it is modelled. This corset gives an exceeding gracefulness of outline to the figure.

PRIVATE WIRES TO GO.

Board of Electrical Control Orders Them to Be Cut To-Morrow.

Ten or Fifteen Thousand of Them Strong Contrary to Law.

Result of the Telephone Company's Complaint.

A gang of men will start out to-morrow to cut down all private telephone, telegraph, signal and electric wires in this city. Orders to that effect were issued by the Board of Electrical Control to-day.

There are between 10,000 and 15,000 private wires of all kinds strung across streets and over housetops, all of which is contrary to the law. Since the patent on the Bell telephone expired there has been an enormous increase in private telephone lines. The apparatus can be purchased for a few dollars now and by stringing a wire cheap telephone communication can be established between two points, with the advantage of being exclusive.

The Telephone Company, which is compelled to place its wires underground and which pays a large rent for the use of the subways, has called attention to the violation of the law by individuals, who have established private lines, to the detriment of telephone stock dividends. The Board of Electrical Control took prompt action by ordering the destruction of the private lines.

The removal of these wires will cause considerable inconvenience. In Wall street, the dry-goods district and in the storehouse district, where private wires are principally used.

It has been the practice of Wall street bankers and large business houses with the telephone company to have their lines connected in different parts of the city to connect their establishments by preference. This has been the case with the telephone company, and they would not allow their pursuers on board of the boat.

Elkins denied the charge, and was held in $500 bail for examination.

LEAVEY'S BIG VERDICT.

$10,000 Damages for Injuries Due to the City's Neglect.

One of the largest verdicts ever rendered against the city in a negligence case was found last night.

It was the case of Patrick Leavey to recover damages for injuries. The case was tried before Judge Fugro and a jury in the Superior Court. Leavey was represented by Messrs. Alfred, Charles and Louis Siskind.

Leavey, who was the driver of a horse-drawn wagon, was injured on Feb. 22, 1901, while driving through First avenue, when his wagon was caught in a hole, knocking Leavey into the roadway. He was seriously injured and he was confined to Bellevue Hospital for a long time.

The Steeklers proved the hole had been in the street for a month, and the city had failed to repair it.

The defense claimed the city was not responsible for the existence of the hole, but that the plaintiff met the accident through negligence.

The jury, after ten minutes' deliberation, brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for $10,000.

EDGAR UNDER SURVEILLANCE.

Defaulting Bank Clerk to Be Arrested When He Recovers.

He Stole $17,000 from the Tradesmen's National Bank.

Frederick C. Edgar, of 64 Green avenue, Brooklyn, formerly clerk of the Tradesmen's National Bank, of 291 Broadway, is under the surveillance of a detective of the United States guarantee company and will be arrested as soon as he recovers sufficiently from an attack of erysipelas.

Edgar has confessed that he is a defaulter to the extent of about $17,000. The defalcations were discovered last January by a clerk who took his place when he was taken ill. They extended over a period of four or five years. Edgar had been employed by the bank for nineteen years.

He is an old soldier, and is well known in Brooklyn G. A. R. and church circles. He drew a salary of $1,700, and lived in style that indicated the expenditure of a much greater sum. The deficiency was made up by the appropriation of small sums paid to him on notes discounted and then not accounted for in the bank's books.

Edgar gave a bond from the United States guarantee company to the bank for $10,000. This is an unexpected addition to the bank's funds, and has put the officers in such good humor that they intend to leave the prosecution of Edgar to the guarantee company.

Secretary D. J. Tompkins, of the latter company, to-day said that Edgar is still too ill to be arrested. He says that he will let the matter before the directors of the guarantee company determine what to do.
